ABOUT LOYOLA

Loyola College, a Catholic Minority Institution, was founded by the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) in 1925, with the primary objective of providing University Education in a Christian atmosphere for deserving students irrespective of caste and creed. UGC conferred the status of "College with potential for Excellence" on Loyola College in 2004 and confirmed the same in 2010. NAAC's re-accreditation score in 2012 (Third Cycle) is 3.70 out of 4.00 CGPA. UGC has elevated Loyola College to the status of College of Excellence for the period from April 1, 2014 till March 31, 2019

SCHOOL OF HUMAN EXCELLENCE (SHE)

The School of Human Excellence (SHE) is a special academic unit of Loyola College committed to offer holistic formation to every loyolite. Formation is central to Jesuit academic mission and thereby the Jesuit Higher Education commission adopted this model as an academic discipline in Loyola College. This formation process is oriented by a team of formators (professors with proven experience in life skills training) who play a central role in guiding students in their values-centered pursuit towards becoming men and women for and with others in the society. The faculty members prepare modules, design materials and engage students to reflect, self question, interact and exchange ideas about values and ethics in the biorhythms of human society. Combined with regular class sessions, the programme is tailored with a sequence of life skills training, skill development training, awareness / motivational talks, workshops, conferences, seminars, symposiums and guest lectures.

OUR RATIONALE

SHE is firmly rooted from two ideologies:

1) Ignatian Pedagogical Paradigm - the very core of Jesuit education, combines an Ignatian vision of the human being and the world with a dynamic five step methodology of context, experience, reflection, action, and evaluation to "accompany the learner in their growth and development"

2) True to the Characteristics of Jesuit Education - it aims at forming men and women for and with others.
