Brief Report:

The Loyola NSS unit started from college by 7th morning and reached Chengalpattu. The volunteers were accommodated at Thimmavaram (CRDS). The volunteers divided into individual committees namely Medical committee, Hospitality committee, Planning committee, financial committee, Food committee and more, and started to clean their neighbourhoods. Seeing the students working so hard the people chained hands for helping our volunteers. This particular session made the people aware of cleanliness and group work. This was the best kick starter for the camp. Our NSS unit had plans for cleaning and executed it at the places around Government Library.

Brief Report:

Since it was a Sunday, the session started a little late by 10:00 AM. The volunteers were involving themselves in active outdoor games like football, kabaddi, volleyball and so on. Followed by lunch we conducted Door-to-Door Campaign all over Thimmavaram in the theme of Plastic Awareness, Dengue, Environmental Issues, etc. People in the village were very much involved in the rally along with our NSS Volunteers, which created a very good impact especially with the children, which made them join hands in the campaign and showed active participation along with us, which was one of the best parts of this campaign. By evening we had an interactive evaluation session with the Programme Officers. The planned outcome for the day was very meaningful.

Brief Report:

The most awaited moment of the camp is Valedictory! Our students started the day with energizing workouts. Volunteers divided themselves into peer groups and started planting the saplings all over the planned areas, then our NSS unit went to Aathur Anganvadi and cleaned up their campus completely. There was another small government school deep inside the village, our volunteers went there, cleaned their campus and they did preparatory phase for sapling plantation and also planted a few saplings. Mr. Basker sir, the Madras University Coordinator for NSS unit arrived for the Valedictory function as the Chief Guest.. He gave an extraordinary speech about leadership qualities, NSS Services and much more. He inspired all the NSS Volunteers by his wonderful speech. After the function Loyola NSS volunteers and Basker sir planted saplings in the school. With this good deed the day came to an end.
